records from Florida's pregnancy-associated mortality review conducted between 1999 and 2005 (N = 415) were linked to 385 toxicology reports obtained from Florida medical examiners' offices.

Accurate diagnosis is the essence for accurate treatment and precise resolution of the issues that bring the patient to treatment.