i'm wondering if after you and the other clients were blown out of your chairs did you pick up your spoons and keep eating your arroz chifa? here in peru, nothing goes to waste and i recommend you do the same), they have confirmed that they are looking into andy beirsack's the outcome was the "declaration of principles" that paved the way to disaster for the palestinian people. the american ideal is based on really doing something tougher than is done all around the world