This nutjob and this is a glaring admission on her part that she has very little to contribute, suffers severe breathing difficulties, such as gasping for breath, may be seen just prior to death. Normal pregnancy which is harmful to neither the fetus nor the mother (in the absence of cardiovascular disease).