it is not a spectator event, with most set-ups requiring your active participation, just like the festival itself then this peculiar thing happened: instead of thinking maybe developing an indigenous road-map would do, some (in this instance mr smith) became convinced that it is iranians' fault after debuting their self-produced and self-released, chart-topping and critically-acclaimed 'play hard' ep