alcohol destroys vital nutrients (vitamins, minerals, and amino acids) that control mental function, preventing depression, and maintaining physical health